Yemeni Team Completes Interviewing Detainees in Guantanamo

BBC

August 19, 2005

Sanaa -- A Yemeni security delegation accomplished its visit to Guantanamo Bay during which it interviewed a number of Yemeni detainees.

Throughout the visit, which lasted more than 10 days, the delegation interviewed 46 detainees out of 110 people the American authorities gave their names to Yemen.

A person, of those recently interviewed by the Yemeni delegation, is not a Yemeni national, sources stated.

Sources pointing out that another Yemeni delegation which had visited Guantanamo Bay before this visit and interviewed 40 other detainees of those listed by the American side found three of them were not Yemenis.
