Bahrain's Detainees in Guantanamo Prison to be Released Soon

Bahrain News Agency
October 30, 2005

A number of Bahrain's detainees at the Guantanamo Bay prison will be released during Eid Days, Bahrain's Foreign Ministry announced on Sunday.

In a statement issued today, the Foreign Ministry source said the expected release of Bahraini detainees was the outcome of the efforts and contacts made by specialized bodies, notably the foreign and Interior ministries of the Kingdom of Bahrain and the lawyers appointed by the prisoners' families. The source hoped that the detainees would join their families in good shape and the remaining prisoners would be released as soon as possible.
