Kuwait Times: Six Kuwaitis to be Released in February

Kuwait Times

November 21, 2005

Gitmo prisoners KUWAIT: The remaining six Kuwaiti detainees in the Guantanamo Bay will be set free in February, reported Al-Qabas quoting informed sources, adding that the US authorities have responded positively in this regard.

Meanwhile, Khalid Al-Oudeh, head of Kuwaiti committee for Gitmo detainees, has informed that a number of prisoners in Guantanamo had been referred to a nearby hospital to prove that they were treated well in captivity, ahead of the Red Cross visit to the detention camp. He added that the US defence authorities have, however, not reported this matter.
